Progress Equity Partners Announces Acquisition of Envision Communications, Inc.

Dallas, Texas – July 30, 2007 – Progress Equity Partners, Ltd., a private equity investment firm focused on investing in middle-market service-based businesses, announced today its recent investment in Envision Communications, Inc.

Founded in 1999 and headquartered in Atlanta, Envision is a leading provider of educational symposia, research content and medical education in the field of oncology. The company successfully completed approximately 2,500 programs during 2006 to the healthcare industry with clients in the United States and Europe. Envision's unique blend of medical, education, and marketing enables them to develop sound strategic solutions to help clients achieve their marketing and sales objectives. This partnership will support Envisions growth plans and solidify the company as the premier provider of promotional and medical education programs to the oncology pharmaceutical industry.
